

Outstanding Teacher Award Nomination

Nomination Criteria for Teacher Nominees

Redlands Educational Partnership will honor Outstanding Teachers from throughout the Redlands Unified School District. Four of the teachers will be presented with a $1,000 personal gift as well as a check to be shared with their school. Each elementary school will have one honoree. The teacher with the most nominations at each site becomes the official honoree.

Who qualifies for the nomination?

Those nominated must be certificated, full-time teachers in the Redlands Unified School District with the majority of their current assignment in the classroom. They must have taught in the district full-time for 3 years and have taught in the profession 5 years.

Who may nominate?

Redlands Unified School District teachers, counselors, psychologists, and administrators may nominate any eligible teacher for this award, but only one nomination from each person is allowed. There are no self-nominations.

Outstanding Classified Employee Award Nomination

Nomination Criteria for Classified Employee Nominees

REP, the Eric Jacobson Memorial Fund and RESPA will honor Outstanding Classified Employees from throughout the Redlands Unified School District. Four of the Classified Employees will be presented with a $500 personal gift. Each elementary school will have one honoree. The employee with the most nominations at each site becomes the official honoree.

Criteria for recognition – The nominee must:

1. Be classified as a permanent employee by RUSD and have worked in the district for 3 years.
2. Exhibit positive personal relationships (students, teachers, etc).
3. Show a commitment to the job that goes beyond minimal requirements.
4. Demonstrate teamwork and an ability to work with others.
5. Exhibit work performance that reveals knowledge and other skills related to their assignment.
6. Show a dedication to enhancing the learning process or learning environment.

Who may nominate?

Redlands Unified School District classified employees, teachers, counselors, psychologists, and administrators may nominate any eligible classified employee for this award, but only one nomination from each person is allowed. There are no self-nominations.